The Gentle Giant and the Feisty Queen

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, strings

Verse 1

On the deck, in the warm sun's glow,
Two loyal hearts, watched them grow.
A Cane Corso with a spirit so mild,
A feisty Chihuahua, running wild.
Chasing circles 'round the wide green space,
Filling our home with love and grace.
Zeus, the gentle, Skye, the bold,
A story of love, forever told.

Chorus

Oh, Zeus and Skye, for ten years true,
My dearest friends, always with you.
My heart still holds each memory bright,
You filled my world with endless light.

Verse 2

I see Zeus sleeping, big and grand,
Skye on his back, a tiny queen in command.
When he was a pup, she'd hang from his lip,
An inseparable bond, a cherished trip.
Each morning, cuddles, before the day began,
Waiting by the door, part of life's plan.
The gentle giant, the boss so small,
Together you answered my every call.

Chorus

Oh, Zeus and Skye, for ten years true,
My dearest friends, always with you.

The Gentle Giant and the Feisty Queen (continued)

My heart still holds each memory bright,
You filled my world with endless light.

Bridge

Thank you for choosing me, my sweet,
You made my life feel so complete.
Not "just dogs," but family, my heart's embrace,
Run free together, in that boundless space.
I'll find you again, I know it's true,
My love goes with you, all my life through.
Watch over Thor, chase every ball,
Your love, my comfort, through it all.

Instrumental - cello solo, sweeping strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Zeus and Skye, for ten years true,
My dearest friends, always with you.
My heart still holds each memory bright,
You filled my world with endless light.

Outro

Running free now, no pain in sight,
Zeus still pestering, with all his might.
Together again, beneath the sun,
My precious ones, your journey's run.
Until we meet again...

Outro - piano, strings fade
