Bongo's Quiet Promise

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

From the start, you stood by my side
A loyal bulldog, nowhere to hide
Through shadowed days, you were my light
Protecting me with all your might
A gentle strength, a steady paw
You helped me rise above it all
With every gaze, a knowing plea
My first true friend, you'll always be.

Chorus

Oh, Bongo, my sweet, gentle soul
Eleven years, you made me whole
In every memory, clear and true
My heart will always long for you.

Verse 2

The morning routine, a sweet delight
A special treat, to start the day right
And when I walked through the door
Your happy greeting, I asked for no more
A wagging tail, a joyful sound
The truest welcome, always profound
Your presence filled our humble space
A comforting smile upon your face.

Chorus

Oh, Bongo, my sweet, gentle soul
Eleven years, you made me whole

In every memory, clear and true
My heart will always long for you.

Bridge

Though silence now fills every room
And in my heart, there rests a gloom
A quiet promise, deep and true
I will find you again someday, I do.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Bongo, my sweet, gentle soul
Eleven years, you made me whole
In every memory, clear and true
My heart will always long for you.

Outro

Now free and young, across the skies
With brother Joker, where joy lies
Running like pups, light and free
A peaceful dream, waiting for me.

Outro - piano fade
