Edgar's Golden Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

I remember the day you first came to my door,
A true toy spaniel, a sight to adore.
With your gentle brown eyes and a graceful soft tread,
A little show dog, a crown on your head.
You held yourself nobly, a dignified grace,
Bringing such beauty to every new space.
A Cavalier heart, so loving and true,
From the very first moment, I fell in love with you.

Chorus

Oh, Edgar, my Edgar, my faithful old friend,
Nine cherished years, right until the very end.
A comfort, a quiet joy, a love shining bright,
You filled every corner with your golden soft light.

Verse 2

So many sweet moments, forever etched deep,
Like the quietest secret that my memory will keep.
Just laying beside me, so warm on my lap,
Through the long afternoons, no need for a nap.
Your soft furry body, a comforting weight,
I cherished those hours, from early to late.
You whispered comfort, banished every fear,
A silent companion, always so near.

Chorus

Oh, Edgar, my Edgar, my faithful old friend,
Nine cherished years, right until the very end.

A comfort, a quiet joy, a love shining bright,
You filled every corner with your golden soft light.

Final Chorus

Oh, Edgar, my Edgar, my faithful old friend,
Nine cherished years, right until the very end.
A comfort, a quiet joy, a love shining bright,
You filled every corner with your golden soft light.

Verse 3

An AKC Gold Grand Champion, a star in your prime,
You shone in the show ring, defying all time.
At the end of your lead, it was my greatest pride,
A privilege to watch you, right there by your side.
The alpha of Finnickyskye, a leader so grand,
Romp with others across our green land.
Our dream lives on, though you're now out of sight,
You filled every day with your beautiful light.

Bridge

And my final soft whisper, a promise I made,
"I love you, you were my everything," as your sweet spirit swayed.
No words can describe the deep bond we both knew,
Every beat of my heart still belongs to you.

Mandolin Solo

Outro

I know you look down, gently telling me "don't cry,"
Watching over me from your peaceful blue sky.
Rest now, sweet Edgar, serene and so calm,
Forever safe here, away from all harm.
