Coco's Sunny Nap

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, ukulele

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, long and low,
Our sweet Coco, watched us grow.
Fifteen years, a loyal friend,
A love that truly knew no end.
She loved her food, a happy bark,
And basking in the sunny park.
Life was a joy, a gentle hum,
Beneath the warmth of morning's sun.

Chorus

Oh, Coco, our sweet Cocosito,
Fifteen years, a precious show.
You filled our days with purest grace,
A sunbeam in this empty space.

Verse 2

Afternoons when work was near,
You'd keep us company, my dear.
And then at night, a happy sight,
When Mom came home, with all your might.
A happy dance, a wagging tail,
No love like yours could ever fail.
You taught us joy, in simple things,
The peace a quiet sunbeam brings.

Chorus

Oh, Coco, our sweet Cocosito,
Fifteen years, a precious show.

You filled our days with purest grace,
A sunbeam in this empty space.

Verse 3

Your gentle presence, day by day,
Chased every worry far away.
A happy sigh, a softest dream,
Reflecting love's purest gleam.
Each quiet moment, understood,
A loyal heart, forever good.
Through every season, calm and bright,
You filled our home with endless light.

Chorus

Oh, Coco, our sweet Cocosito,
Fifteen years, a precious show.
You filled our days with purest grace,
A sunbeam in this empty space.

Bridge

Though now you sleep, beyond the blue,
My heart still whispers, clear and true.
"I love you, Cocosito," soft and low,
More than these words could ever show.

Instrumental - gentle strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Coco, our sweet Cocosito,
Fifteen years, a precious show.
You filled our days with purest grace,
A sunbeam in this empty space.

Outro

Now in the heavens, bright and free,
Begging God for snacks, we see.
Sleeping soft, a peaceful dream,
Our precious Coco, a loving gleam.

Outro - piano fade
