Canny's Everlasting Breeze

A Tribute Song

Intro - strings, French horn

Verse 1

I remember the first time, your eyes met with mine
A Hannoveraner spirit, so noble, so fine
You waited for me there, a silent, soft plea
With such honest trust, you gave all to me
For safety and comfort, you looked to my hand
The kindest of giants across the land
A bond quickly forming, a silent decree
Your steadfast affection, forever for me.

Chorus

Oh, Canny, my dear, in every soft breeze
Your memory lives on, bringing me peace
Eleven and a half years, a precious, sweet time
Forever etched deeply, a love so sublime.

Verse 2

The afternoons lingered, as shadows grew long
Our evening cuddles, where we both belonged
Your soft muzzle brushing, a warm, gentle sigh
Beneath the vast heavens, as moments flew by
A comforting presence, so steady and true
In those quiet moments, my heart felt renewed
With every soft whicker, a love understood
More than a horse, you were family, good.

Chorus

Oh, Canny, my dear, in every soft breeze
Your memory lives on, bringing me peace

Eleven and a half years, a precious, sweet time
Forever etched deeply, a love so sublime.

Verse 3

From shadows I found you, a spirit in pain,
A future reborn, a love to sustain.
With gentle devotion, we nurtured your soul,
Watched youthful fire burn, making you whole.
You'd greet me with whinnies, just knowing I'm near,
Dispelling my sorrows, calming every fear.
A bond forged in trials, unwavering and true,
I gave my whole heart, and you gave yours too.

Bridge

If love had the power to save you, my friend
You'd be with me now, until our days' end
Without any pain, just pure joy and grace
But you ran free, Canny, in that beautiful place
Please wait for me, darling, at the rainbow bridge
A promise unbroken, beyond any ridge.

Instrumental - strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Canny, my dear, in every soft breeze
Your memory lives on, bringing me peace
Eleven and a half years, a precious, sweet time
Forever etched deeply, a love so sublime.

Outro - strings fade

Now you run free, beyond the sun's gleam
Living forever, a beautiful dream.

Forever in our hearts
