Pearl's Happy Trails

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

Big white fur, a gentle friend so grand,
A Great Pyrenees, across the land.
The moment I saw you, a light shone through,
Your happy tail wagged, a smile just for me too.
A welcome so bright, a joy in your gaze,
You brightened my heart in so many ways.
A loyal companion, so kind and so sweet,
Each day with you, a wonderful feat.

Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my Pearl, with fur like the snow,
Four short years, how swiftly they did go.
Every memory, a treasure I hold dear,
Whispering your name, though you're no longer here.
Your spirit still shines, a beacon so bright,
Filling my world with love and pure light.

Verse 2

As bedtime drew near, the day's gentle close,
You'd race to the mattress, as everyone knows.
My spot was your spot, a sweet playful tease,
Then tummy rubs started, putting your heart at ease.
Three little grunts, a soft sleepy sound,
Before slumber deep, where peace could be found.
Soon your gentle snores, a comforting hum,
A warm cozy presence, until morning would come.

Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my Pearl, with fur like the snow,
Four short years, how swiftly they did go.
Every memory, a treasure I hold dear,
Whispering your name, though you're no longer here.
Your spirit still shines, a beacon so bright,
Filling my world with love and pure light.

Bridge

Run free, baby girl, no pain in your stride,
With brother Rex now, by your side.
At the rainbow bridge, I'll meet you someday,
My love for you, will never fade away.
I miss you more than words can express, it's true,
But knowing you're happy, helps see me through.

Instrumental - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my Pearl, with fur like the snow,
Four short years, how swiftly they did go.
Every memory, a treasure I hold dear,
Whispering your name, though you're no longer here.
Your spirit still shines, a beacon so bright,
Filling my world with love and pure light.

Outro

On soft green grass, you chase and you play,
Forever joyful, through a brand new day.
No more pain for your legs, just pure delight,
Sleeping softly now, bathed in endless light.

Outro - ukulele fade
