Lilo's Endless Play

A Tribute Song

Intro - orchestral strings, piano

Verse 1

From the moment you arrived, a tiny, silken friend,
Your loving, friendly spirit, knew no earthly end.
A small Silky terrier, with a heart so pure and true,
Our world became much brighter, the day that we met you.

Chorus

Oh, Lilo, sweet Lilo, our guiding, gentle light,
Twelve years we walked together, through morning, day, and night.
Your paw print on our hearts, a story softly told,
More precious than the silver, or finest, shining gold.

Verse 2

The happy game of fetch, when you would chase the ball,
Your joyful little barks, brought laughter to us all.
With every wagging tail, a world of pure delight,
You filled our home with sunshine, and chased away the night.

Chorus

Oh, Lilo, sweet Lilo, our guiding, gentle light,
Twelve years we walked together, through morning, day, and night.
Your paw print on our hearts, a story softly told,
More precious than the silver, or finest, shining gold.

Bridge

Though silence fills the air, where once your spirit played,
A promise whispers softly, a vow that won't degrade.
"I find you again forever," my heart still clearly hears,

Final Chorus

Oh, Lilo, sweet Lilo, our guiding, gentle light,
Twelve years we walked together, through morning, day, and night.
Your paw print on our hearts, a story softly told,
More precious than the silver, or finest, shining gold.

Outro

Now softly you are sleeping, in dreams of endless grace,
A tranquil, peaceful slumber, in time's eternal space.
We feel your gentle presence, a comfort deep and true,
Until that precious moment, when I find you again, anew.
