Schnapps' Green Grass Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

A little shadow, long and low,
A spirit free, you let us know.
You taught each foster, shy and meek,
The gentle love that they should seek.
Your tiny paws, a guiding light,
Reminded us of mealtime's plight.
Our independent, wise old friend,
A love like yours would never end.

Chorus

Oh, Schnapps, dear Schnapps, my heart's true beat,
Nineteen years, so bittersweet.
A tiny king, forever bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Verse 2

When day was done and shadows deep,
Our quiet time, secrets to keep.
After supper, side-by-side,
Upon the couch, our spirits tied.
A peaceful presence, warm and small,
You answered every loving call.
Just being near, a simple grace,
A cherished spot, your special place.

Chorus

Oh, Schnapps, dear Schnapps, my heart's true beat,
Nineteen years, so bittersweet.

Schnapps' Green Grass Run (continued)

A tiny king, forever bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Bridge

I whispered softly, "Run and play,"
"With sisters, brothers, every day."
"Across the Bridge, a joyful sound,"
"And wait for me on hallowed ground."

Banjo Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Schnapps, dear Schnapps, my heart's true beat,
Nineteen years, so bittersweet.
A tiny king, forever bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Outro

Now in the greenest grass you roam,
Searching for bunnies, far from home.
A happy chase, a joyful sprint,
My little Schnapps, a timeless print.

Outro - guitar fade
