Chloe's Journey Home

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

Every path I walk, every memory clear,
Of a tiny friend, always so near.
Your soft white fur, a comforting sight,
My little shadow, morning, noon, and night.
Every place we went, every door we passed through,
Reminds me, sweet Chloe, of always having you.
A loyal heart, so brave and so small,
You answered my every call.

Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my dear, my precious star,
We walked together, no matter how far.
Sixteen long years, a love so true,
My heart forever holds memories of you.

Verse 2

The moment I stirred, with morning's first light,
You were right there, a comforting sight.
Your little paw resting, a gentle demand,
Always by my side, a soft, warm hand.
To work we would go, a happy routine,
The best office dog, I've ever seen.
Your happy bark, a joy to behold,
A story of love, more precious than gold.

Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my dear, my precious star,
We walked together, no matter how far.

Sixteen long years, a love so true,
My heart forever holds memories of you.

Verse 3

Though quiet now, the house feels still and calm,
I feel your presence, a soothing, gentle balm.
A vacant spot beside me, where you used to lay,
But in my heart, you never went away.
I close my eyes, and see your loving gaze,
Remembering you through all these precious days.
Your tiny spirit, forever intertwined with mine,
A love like ours, eternally divine.

Bridge

Now go and be free, released from all pain,
Until we are together, someday again.
Enjoy your sweet freedom, run wild and bright,
You're soaring, my darling, into the light.

Instrumental - piano, harp

Final Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my dear, my precious star,
We walked together, no matter how far.
Sixteen long years, a love so true,
My heart forever holds memories of you.

Outro

Running free now, with Gizmo your brother,
And Pa by your side, amongst all the others.
No more pain for you, just boundless grace,
A peaceful slumber, in a beautiful place.

Outro - piano fade
