Mocha's Soulful Gaze

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the day, your gaze so deep and true,
Those soulful eyes, always following through.
Unfailing loyalty, a companion so rare,
My soul dog, my strength, beyond all compare.
For every treat, an adventure you'd crave,
Your love was the constant, a promise you gave.
You called me your mom, and I felt it profoundly,
My heart knew you'd chosen me, sweetly and soundly.

Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my sweet, my dear old friend,
Seventeen heartfelt years, right to the end.
You are my heart, a love so pure and bright,
Guiding my darkness, bringing in light.

Verse 2

Every second with you, a favorite time it seemed,
Your happy licks chased away every sad dream.
Those cuddles in bed, a comforting art,
Your infectious joy mended my broken heart.
Our walks at 4 am, to the park and the sand,
Precious memories we made, paw in my hand.
Each moment a gift, a soulful embrace,
Leaving behind not a single empty space.

Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my sweet, my dear old friend,
Seventeen heartfelt years, right to the end.

You are my heart, a love so pure and bright,
Guiding my darkness, bringing in light.

Verse 3

You always sensed my feelings, knew just what I'd need,
Never more than three feet, a silent, loving creed.
You were joy, you were sunshine, a love beyond compare,
I still feel your presence, floating in the air.
From car rides to road trips, across the land we'd roam,
Sedona to the ocean, always finding home.
My Spring, Summer, Winter, my comfort and my guide,
You were truly everything, right by my side.

Bridge

I love you Mo, always, my beautiful one,
Come look for me when my journey is done.
There will only be one Mo, never replaced,
Your paw prints forever, on my heart traced.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my sweet, my dear old friend,
Seventeen heartfelt years, right to the end.
You are my heart, a love so pure and bright,
Guiding my darkness, bringing in light.

Outro

You're beside me, I know, at your favorite spot,
Healing and free, by sorrows un-caught.
Don't cry, you whisper, I'm always near,
In every warm memory, dispelling all fear.

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
