Layla's Endless Summer

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

From the moment you arrived, a tiny chocolate dream,
You filled my world with sunshine, a never-ending gleam.
My loyal, sweet best friend, with eyes so kind and true,
You taught me what unconditional love could do.

Chorus

Oh, Layla, Layla, sunshine in my soul,
Fourteen years of memories, making my life whole.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a joy that knows no end,
My beautiful Layla, my forever loving friend.

Verse 2

After shifts of twenty-four, exhausted and worn out,
You'd greet me at the doorway, with not a single doubt.
A wagging tail, a cherished toy, a shower of wet kisses,
You healed my weary spirit, chasing all my misses.

Chorus

Oh, Layla, Layla, sunshine in my soul,
Fourteen years of memories, making my life whole.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a joy that knows no end,
My beautiful Layla, my forever loving friend.

Bridge

I love you, Lay, for showing me a love so pure and deep,
You helped me through my darkest days, secrets you would keep.
My baby girl forever, a bond that time can't break,

For all the joy you gave to me, my heart will always ache.

Ukulele solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Layla, Layla, sunshine in my soul,
Fourteen years of memories, making my life whole.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a joy that knows no end,
My beautiful Layla, my forever loving friend.

Outro - ukulele fade

Now you're chasing squirrels, running wild and free,
On golden sandy beaches, jumping waves for all to see.
Playing ball and laughing, beneath the summer sky,
My sweet Layla, soaring high.

Forever in our hearts
