Louie's Silent Guard

A Tribute Song

Intro - strings, piano

Verse 1

From the start, you stood so tall and brave,
A German Shepherd, always there to save.
With keenest senses, sharp and true,
You'd chase the shadows, see the mission through.
Sniffing out the dangers hidden deep,
While all the city peacefully would sleep.
You caught the bad guys, swift and strong,
Where you belonged, was right along.

Chorus

Oh, Louie, my protector, loyal and true,
For ten and a half years, my world was you.
A silent guardian, steadfast and bold,
A story of courage, forever told.

Verse 2

No matter how long the shift would run,
Your waiting presence, second to none.
At eleven past the evening's chime,
You'd greet me gladly, every time.
Then by my side, you'd softly lay,
And chase the weary thoughts away.
Until my eyelids gently closed,
Your quiet comfort, truly composed.

Chorus

Oh, Louie, my protector, loyal and true,
For ten and a half years, my world was you.

Louie's Silent Guard (continued)

A silent guardian, steadfast and bold,
A story of courage, forever told.

Bridge

Thank you, Louie, for the safety you ensured,
Every single day, your watch secured.
Through every risk, you stood so near,
Dispelling every doubt and fear.

Instrumental - strings, brass

Final Chorus

Oh, Louie, my protector, loyal and true,
For ten and a half years, my world was you.
A silent guardian, steadfast and bold,
A story of courage, forever told.

Outro

Now you're running free, across the sky,
With brother Saber, watching from on high.
No longer bound by duty's call,
Just endless fields, embracing all.
A peaceful rest, a joyful run,
Your work is over, safely done.

Outro - strings fade
