Rambo's Evening Stroll

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

A little bulldog, stubborn and so grand,
Love seeking companion across the land.
Your own sweet ways, your heart so true,
Our first super migrant, we loved you.

Chorus

Oh, Rambo, dear Rambo, almost thirteen years,
You wiped away all of our fears.
With every evening stroll, a joy you would bring,
The sweet memories of our small king.

Verse 2

Your siestas were legendary, a gassy, loud snore,
We wouldn't trade them for anything more.
That special time, when day would grow dim,
Our cherished evening stroll, just you and him.

Chorus

Oh, Rambo, dear Rambo, almost thirteen years,
You wiped away all of our fears.
With every evening stroll, a joy you would bring,
The sweet memories of our small king.

Bridge

Mom, Panchi, Chiqui, and Claud, our hearts still hold you tight,
We'll always love you, with all of our might.
We really miss you, more than words can say,

Our love for you will never fade away.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Rambo, dear Rambo, almost thirteen years,
You wiped away all of our fears.
With every evening stroll, a joy you would bring,
The sweet memories of our small king.

Outro

Now you're taking good long siestas, peaceful and deep,
With Mamami's forbidden treats, secrets to keep.
Then Tatu takes you on a walk, long and so free,
Rambling on, for all eternity.
