Jasper's Joyful Chase

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

A little Shih Tzu, calm and sweet,
Never barked, just shuffled feet.
You watched the floor, with hopeful eyes,
Awaiting tasty, dropped surprise.
Your gentle spirit, so profound,
The happiest boy on hallowed ground.
A quiet friend, a peaceful soul,
Making our lives feel whole.

Chorus

Oh, Jasper, dear Jasper, for fifteen bright years,
You chased away all of our fears.
A wagging tail, a joyful sound,
The best little dog we ever found.
Your memory dances, light and true,
Our hearts will always remember you.

Verse 2

After my shifts, when day was done,
Your happy greeting, like the sun.
A little dance, a happy sigh,
Just seeing you, I'd reach the sky.
You knew my step, you knew my call,
Always there to give your all.
A loyal heart, so full of grace,
Always putting smiles on every face.

Chorus

Jasper's Joyful Chase (continued)

Oh, Jasper, dear Jasper, for fifteen bright years,
You chased away all of our fears.
A wagging tail, a joyful sound,
The best little dog we ever found.
Your memory dances, light and true,
Our hearts will always remember you.

Bridge

Now chase the chickens, wild and free,
No heavy burdens, just pure glee.
Run on forever, no more pain,
Until we meet again.

You chased away all of our fears.

Running free and happy, in sunlit fields you roam,
A peaceful spirit, finding your way home.
