Biskit's Little Shadow Dance

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, glockenspiel

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, close to my feet,
Wherever I walked, our journey complete.
My little dachshund, with a wiggling gait,
Always by my side, sealed by fate.

Chorus

Oh, Biskit, my love, a joy so profound,
For four years, five months, fifteen days on hallowed ground.
A celebration of the light that you gave,
The happiest memories we will always save.

Verse 2

When I came home, what a sight to behold,
Your little heart racing, a story untold.
You couldn't wait till I sat on the floor,
For all of your cuddles, and so much more.

Chorus

Oh, Biskit, my love, a joy so profound,
For four years, five months, fifteen days on hallowed ground.
A celebration of the light that you gave,
The happiest memories we will always save.

Bridge

My sweet boy, eat all the treats that you crave,
Bark at all the things, be happy and brave.
I'll feel your warm presence, though you're out of sight,

I will cuddle you again some day, with all of my might.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Biskit, my love, a joy so profound,
For four years, five months, fifteen days on hallowed ground.
A celebration of the light that you gave,
The happiest memories we will always save.

Outro

Now barking at everyone, letting them know you're there,
Searching for someone, all your sweet love to share.
Running free and loved, under the sun's golden ray,
Happy and cherished, forever and a day.

Outro - ukulele fade
