Kymber's Quiet Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, soft strings

Verse 1

The gentle sound that starts the day,
Your click-clack nails would lead the way.
From our warm bed, a watchful gaze,
You'd greet the world through morning haze.
A loyal heart, a spirit true,
In every moment, fresh and new.
Our sweet Lab, with eyes so bright,
A steady comfort, morning light.

Chorus

Oh, Kymber, my dear, our precious girl,
You brought such joy into our world.
For twelve sweet years and months we shared,
A love beyond compare.

Verse 2

When night arrived, the day would cease,
Your quiet cuddles brought such peace.
Beside Mom's feet, a helping paw,
Obeying every kitchen law.
A gentle nudge, a happy sigh,
As golden years went drifting by.
In every corner of our home,
Your loving spirit softly roamed.

Chorus

Oh, Kymber, my dear, our precious girl,
You brought such joy into our world.

Kymber's Quiet Watch (continued)

For twelve sweet years and months we shared,
A love beyond compare.

Bridge

No more the pain, your spirit free,
We love and miss you, endlessly.
We hold your memory, warm and deep,
Our promise made, a vow to keep.
We will see you again some day.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Kymber, my dear, our precious girl,
You brought such joy into our world.
For twelve sweet years and months we shared,
A love beyond compare.

Outro

Now with your sister, Darby, you play,
In endless fields of light each day.
Our Kymber, running free and bright,
Sleeping in soft eternal light.

Outro - piano fade
