Carlirose, Run Free

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, light percussion

Verse 1

I remember your wet nose, a morning gentle start,
A loyal German Shepherd, with such a loving heart.
You'd leap into the water, to save me from the deep,
And share your cozy bed, while little Bubbles slept.
So smart and kind, a presence strong and true,
Every moment with you, a joy brand new.
A gentle giant, with a spirit bright and bold,
A lifetime of sweet stories, worth more than finest gold.

Chorus

Oh Carlirose, my beautiful and brave,
For fourteen and a half years, the best of love you gave.
You filled our home with laughter, you healed our every ache,
A love like yours, dear friend, no one can ever break.

Verse 2

We'd spend those peaceful afternoons, just doing nothing there,
Beneath the open sky, without a single care.
Just soaking in the sunshine, a quiet, happy gaze,
Content in simple moments, through all our passing days.
A quiet understanding, without a single sound,
The truest kind of friendship, forever to be found.
Each wagging tail, a poem, each glance, a tender plea,
You taught us how to cherish, all that's wild and free.

Chorus

Oh Carlirose, my beautiful and brave,
For fourteen and a half years, the best of love you gave.

Carlirose, Run Free (continued)

You filled our home with laughter, you healed our every ache,
A love like yours, dear friend, no one can ever break.

Bridge

Now your spirit soars above, on winds of gentle grace,
No pain to hold you back, in that ethereal space.
Run fast, run free, my sweet Angel, hear my plea,
You were so loved, and always will be, Carlirose.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh Carlirose, my beautiful and brave,
For fourteen and a half years, the best of love you gave.
You filled our home with laughter, you healed our every ache,
A love like yours, dear friend, no one can ever break.

Outro

Now you're running through the tall grass, chasing butterflies so high,
Running fast and free from pain, beneath a boundless sky.
Always with us, Carlirose, a whisper in the breeze,
Sleeping in our hearts, with everlasting peace.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
