Kai, My Morning Echo

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, harp

Verse 1

A soulcat's silent promise, always by my side,
A sleek and graceful shadow, nowhere left to hide.
My special boy, my best friend, from the very start,
You carved a place forever, deep within my heart.

Chorus

Oh, Kai, my morning echo, in every fading dream,
Fourteen years of friendship, a love so pure, it gleams.
Though silence fills the spaces where your gentle purr would be,
Your spirit still surrounds me, setting my heart free.

Verse 2

Each morning, as I stirred, your sweet meow would call,
"I hear you!" soft and clear, through the quiet hall.
And when I spoke your name, you'd run right to my side,
"I'm coming!" was the promise, with nowhere left to hide.
On darkest, weary days, you'd know just what to do,
A comforting warm snuggle, always seeing me through.

Chorus

Oh, Kai, my morning echo, in every fading dream,
Fourteen years of friendship, a love so pure, it gleams.
Though silence fills the spaces where your gentle purr would be,
Your spirit still surrounds me, setting my heart free.

Verse 3

An eight-month kitten, small and shy, you came into my arms,
Your first home couldn't keep you safe from all the world's alarms.
Upon my lap, in leopard print, your tiny self I held,
So skittish then, but soon your love, my deepest fears dispelled.

Kai, My Morning Echo (continued)

Bridge

Thank you for the years, for love beyond compare,
My reason to keep going, when burdens I would bear.
My special boy, you were mine, a gift from skies above,
I love and miss you daily, wrapped in endless love.

Instrumental - soft strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Kai, my morning echo, in every fading dream,
Fourteen years of friendship, a love so pure, it gleams.
Though silence fills the spaces where your gentle purr would be,
Your spirit still surrounds me, setting my heart free.

Outro

Now you're free and playing, with siblings, bright and new,
Beyond the Rainbow Bridge, where pain can't reach you.
I'll wait until that morning, when I can see you smile,
My special boy, my Kai, just for a little while.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
