Verse 1

A Dobermann heart, so strong and true
Through city streets, I walked with you
Hours we spent at work and home
Never truly felt alone
You roamed through London with no fear
A gentle giant, loved so dear
The city's never been the same
Since I whisper your sweet name

Chorus

Oh, Wylie, my brave heart, my friend
Seven years of love, right to the end
A guardian spirit, ever near
Your memory banishes all fear

Verse 2

When we got home from a long day
You'd find your spot and softly lay
Right next to me, against the pillow deep
A gentle sigh, as you'd fall asleep
Chilled and home, beside me there
A perfect peace beyond compare
Those quiet moments, soft and low

The dearest memories I know

Chorus

Oh, Wylie, my brave heart, my friend
Seven years of love, right to the end
A guardian spirit, ever near
Your memory banishes all fear

Verse 3

Your gentle nature, deep and kind
The truest loyalty I'd find
A quiet strength that held its sway
Through every moment of the day
You simply knew, without a word
The silent comfort you conferred
My cherished boy, my faithful friend
A love like ours will never end.

Bridge

I'd whisper softly, in your ear
"Who's my favorite dog, my dear?"
You'd look up then, with eyes so bright
My answer clear, my guiding light
Always you, my loyal boy
My deepest comfort, my greatest joy

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Wylie, my brave heart, my friend
Seven years of love, right to the end
A guardian spirit, ever near
Your memory banishes all fear

Outro

Now watching the gates, I know you wait
Beyond the rainbow, beyond fate
Dreaming peacefully, serene and deep
My sweet Wylie, as you softly sleep

Outro - piano fade
