Polley Pocket's Brightest Star

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember your little feet on the steps, a gentle sound
A fluffy shadow following us around
Then pushing your way under the doona, soft and deep
Keeping a silent watch while we would sleep
A tiny spirit with a heart so grand
The smallest paw in my outstretched hand
Eighteen years flew by like a joyful breeze
Bringing us comfort and such sweet ease

Chorus

Oh, Polley Pocket, our brightest star, shining above
Eighteen beautiful years, filled with endless love
Though tears may fall, we'll remember with joy
The precious memories, a bond no time can destroy

Verse 2

The sound of your barking, a welcome home call
Always there to greet me, standing so tall
Then nipping my ankles, a sweet, playful plea
For cuddles and closeness, just you and me
A little bossy, with a spirit so bold
A thousand funny stories, forever to be told
You taught us kindness, loyalty, and grace
Leaving paw prints all over this place

Chorus

Oh, Polley Pocket, our brightest star, shining above
Eighteen beautiful years, filled with endless love

Though tears may fall, we'll remember with joy
The precious memories, a bond no time can destroy

Bridge

We whisper now, though you're far away
If love could have saved you, we'd be together today
Forever entwined, a love so deep and true
Our hearts will always carry a piece of you

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Polley Pocket, our brightest star, shining above
Eighteen beautiful years, filled with endless love
Though tears may fall, we'll remember with joy
The precious memories, a bond no time can destroy

Outro - light drums, piano fade

Now you're with Chester, chasing around with glee
Eating chicken, wild and free
Under the sun, or a starlit night
Forever cherished, our guiding light

Forever in our hearts
