Charlie's Winter Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - ambient piano, soft guitar

Verse 1

A watchful shadow, strong and true,
A loyal friend, a love so new.
With gentle eyes, a noble grace,
You found your special, cherished place.
A shepherd's heart, a soul so deep,
Our little girl, you vowed to keep.
A silent guardian, ever near,
You chased away all doubt and fear.

Chorus

Oh, Charlie, brave and kind,
A truer love we'll never find.
For two short years, a precious bond,
Our faithful friend, forever fond.

Verse 2

The quiet house, the day was long,
Then footsteps played your happy song.
By kitchen door, you'd wait for me,
A wagging tail, a joyous plea.
No warmer welcome could there be,
Than your sweet face, so full of glee.
Your happy bark, a gentle sound,
The truest friend we ever found.

Chorus

Oh, Charlie, brave and kind,
A truer love we'll never find.

Charlie's Winter Run (continued)

For two short years, a precious bond,
Our faithful friend, forever fond.

Bridge

I love you, Charlie, I miss you so,
A love like ours will always grow.
I hope to see your face again,
Together forever, free from pain.

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Charlie, brave and kind,
A truer love we'll never find.
For two short years, a precious bond,
Our faithful friend, forever fond.

Outro

Now you're running, wild and free,
Across the snow, for all to see.
A joyful spirit, light and bright,
Bathed in soft, eternal light.
