Angel and Molly, A Lake So Blue

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, strings

Verse 1

Remember mornings, the door a silent plea,
Two loyal Labradors, happy as can be.
Waiting for the lake, with anticipation bright,
My daughter's joyful call, bathed in golden light.
Running to the car, tails a joyful sway,
Another weekend adventure, come what may.
The water's gentle call, a cherished, happy sound,
Our best girls, Angel and Molly, on sacred ground.

Chorus

Oh, Angel and Molly, my sweet, loyal friends,
A love like yours, it truly never ends.
Almost thirteen years for one, fifteen for the other,
More than pets, you were family, sister and brother.
Though tears may fall, I feel your spirits near,
Chasing shadows on a lake, banishing all fear.

Verse 2

When day was done and evening shadows grew,
Our special time together, just me and you.
You'd leap upon the bed, a soft, familiar weight,
Cuddling close beside me, sealed by love and fate.
Those quiet, peaceful moments, a comfort so profound,
The safest, warmest haven, nowhere else to be found.
With every gentle sigh, my heart would softly bloom,
Chasing away the shadows, banishing the gloom.

Chorus

Angel and Molly, A Lake So Blue (continued)

Oh, Angel and Molly, my sweet, loyal friends,
A love like yours, it truly never ends.
Almost thirteen years for one, fifteen for the other,
More than pets, you were family, sister and brother.
Though tears may fall, I feel your spirits near,
Chasing shadows on a lake, banishing all fear.

Bridge

I love you both, and I miss you every day,
So glad your pain is gone, chased so far away.
You left a paw print on my heart, a gentle, lasting art,
Never truly gone, just a little set apart.

Instrumental - strings, oboe

Final Chorus

Oh, Angel and Molly, my sweet, loyal friends,
A love like yours, it truly never ends.
Almost thirteen years for one, fifteen for the other,
More than pets, you were family, sister and brother.
Though tears may fall, I feel your spirits near,
Chasing shadows on a lake, banishing all fear.

Outro

Now you're playing together, in a beautiful, calm lake,
Swimming free and happy, for goodness gracious sake.
Peaceful, joyful spirits, beneath the endless sky,
My Angel and my Molly, forever you will fly.

Outro - piano fade
