Pearl's Gentle Rest

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, soft strings

Verse 1

A gentle nudge, a trusting sigh,
Your soft head resting on my thigh.
I'd watch you dream, so calm and deep,
Your happy tail a secret to keep.
My Lab-Boxer heart, so strong and true,
A loving spirit shining through.
That lamb chop toy, it knew its place,
When you demanded my embrace.

Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my love, a steadfast friend,
Eleven years, right to the end.
Your gentle spirit, soft and bright,
You filled my world with pure starlight.

Verse 2

When evening came, and day was done,
Beneath the covers, safe from the sun.
You'd burrow deep, a cozy space,
A loving comfort, full of grace.
Your quiet breathing, warm and near,
Chased away every doubt and fear.
A silent promise, understood,
My dearest Pearl, my precious good.

Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my love, a steadfast friend,
Eleven years, right to the end.

Pearl's Gentle Rest (continued)

Your gentle spirit, soft and bright,
You filled my world with pure starlight.

Verse 3

Through quiet moments, calm and slow,
A steady comfort, soft and low.
Your trusting eyes, a gentle gaze,
Brightened all my darker days.
A silent partner, always near,
Dispelling every lonely fear.
Your loyal heart, so pure and kind,
The truest friend I'd ever find.

Bridge

Through every storm, you were my guide,
A strength within, deep down inside.
Thank you for saving me, my dear,
I love you so much, banishing fear.

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Pearl, my love, a steadfast friend,
Eleven years, right to the end.
Your gentle spirit, soft and bright,
You filled my world with pure starlight.

Outro

Now with old friends, a joyful clan,
Vater, Einstein, Shep, Michelab, a happy plan.
Sleep soundly now, in endless grace,
A peaceful smile upon your face.

Outro - piano fade
