Rambo's Steady Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

I recall the day, a moment so clear,
An old soul with a heart of gold, forever so dear.
With loyal eyes, a soft, faithful paw,
My constant companion, transcending every law.
You came into my life, a gentle, quiet grace,
Filling every corner of this lonely space.
A silent promise, beneath sun and sky,
My truest friend, till time passed by.

Chorus

Oh, Rambo, my dear, through twelve steady years,
You chased away shadows and banished all fears.
A love so true, a bond so deep and strong,
Where you belonged, is where I still belong.

Verse 2

Through morning light or fading day's last gleam,
You were my steady Eddy, a comforting dream.
Always there, a quiet, solid friend,
Right by my side, until the very end.
No need for words, just a comforting sigh,
Beneath the vastness of an open sky.
Ready for adventure, or a peaceful rest,
You always gave your absolute best.

Chorus

Oh, Rambo, my dear, through twelve steady years,
You chased away shadows and banished all fears.

A love so true, a bond so deep and strong,
Where you belonged, is where I still belong.

Verse 3

A knowing gaze, a gentle, silent plea,
You understood the truest heart of me.
Each soft head-nuzzle, chasing clouds away,
Making brighter every single day.
In weary moments, you were my calm port,
A haven built of love, in every sort.
You made the mundane shine, a sacred art,
My steadfast Rambo, etched within my heart.

Bridge

Though seasons change, and time moves swiftly on,
Your loving spirit is never truly gone.
My final whisper, a promise to hold near,
You're forever by my side, wherever I go, you go, my dear.

Instrumental - strings, French horn

Final Chorus

Oh, Rambo, my dear, through twelve steady years,
You chased away shadows and banished all fears.
A love so true, a bond so deep and strong,
Where you belonged, is where I still belong.

Outro - piano fade

Now you're riding shotgun, wind in your fur,
Playing with Kona, a joyful blur.
Across golden fields, beneath skies so blue,
My steady heart, forever with you.

Forever in our hearts
