Sunshine Trooperetta's Lullaby

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

A sassy spirit, a Boston Pug so grand,
You loved your dresses, the best in all the land.
The boss of the house, you ruled with a proud paw,
My Boston Terrorizer, loved by all.
That growly bark, a sound I knew so well,
Your prance dance greeting, casting a magic spell.
My Momma's girl, my world, my shining star,
No matter how near, no matter how far.

Chorus

Oh, Sunshine, my sweet friend so true,
Ten years of love, shared with you.
You were my sunshine, my only light,
Guiding me softly, day and through the night.

Verse 2

Your gentle snuggles, the best part of each day,
Chasing all the shadows, keeping them away.
In car rides, you'd protect me, fierce and bold,
From concrete trucks, dogs, cows and monkeys to be told.
Every moment with you, a treasured art,
A tiny Boston Pug hero with a lion's heart.
You watched me closely, safe within your care,
A love like ours, beyond compare.

Chorus

Oh, Sunshine, my sweet friend so true,
Ten years of love, shared with you.

Sunshine Trooperetta's Lullaby (continued)

You were my sunshine, my only light,
Guiding me softly, day and through the night.

Verse 3

My Boston Pug terrorizer, so brave and small,
You were Miss Bossy, answering every call.
That special growl bark, a sound I miss each day,
A sweet reminder, in your own loving way.
You were my sunshine, dispelling every cloud,
Making me happy, standing strong and proud.
A decade of memories, a bond that can't be frayed,
In every beat of my heart, your presence has stayed.

Bridge

You are my Sunshine, my only Sunshine,
You made me happy when skies were grey.
You'll never know, dear, how much I miss you,
Love, Momma, always, every single day.

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Sunshine, my sweet friend so true,
Ten years of love, shared with you.
You were my sunshine, my only light,
Guiding me softly, day and through the night.

Outro

Now watching over me, from skies above,
My sweet Sunshine, wrapped in endless love.
Sleeping gently, peaceful and serene,
My cherished memories, forever keen.

Outro - guitar fade
