
Izzy Bear's Wild Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The click of your long nails on the kitchen floor,
A sound we learned to listen for.
Your sweet "woo woo woo" when we walked through the door,
Our happy boy, asking for more.
Your fur, soft as a bunny, a gentle touch,
Though fear held you in its clutch.
We saw your gentle soul, meaning so much,
Our best boy, we loved you as such.

Chorus

Oh, Izzy Bear, our loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, from start to end.
A bond of trust that would transcend,
On your love, we could always depend.

Verse 2

Those "sniffy walks" in our forest green,
The happiest dog we'd ever seen.
Afternoon snacks, a joyful scene,
Under blankets, you'd snuggle, our sleep king.
Mr. Piggy, your one true delight,
Your security pig, held ever so tight.
Never destroyed, shining ever so bright,
A precious toy, day and night.

Chorus

Oh, Izzy Bear, our loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, from start to end.
A bond of trust that would transcend,
On your love, we could always depend.

Izzy Bear's Wild Heart (continued)

You bit us then, so full of fright,
But learned to trust us with all your might.
Our best dog ever, a guiding light,
Now safe forever, no fear, just pure love, shining bright.
We miss him, sweet Izzy Bear, with all our heart,
Though from us, he's now apart.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Izzy Bear, our loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, from start to end.
A bond of trust that would transcend,
On your love, we could always depend.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now running free, leash unclipped,
Sniffing "pee mail," every scent dipped.
Eating all the snacks, his joy is gripped,
On Dad's lap, forever equipped.

Forever in our hearts
