Lincoln's Golden Welcome

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember looking up the stairs, a common sight
You'd see me standing there, a joyful, golden light
Then you'd come bounding down, a happy, furry blur
Your whole body wiggling, beneath your shining fur
Your tail would wag so hard, a whirlwind of delight
Always with a toy, held gently, shining bright
You'd greet me at the door, with love beyond compare
A happy bark, a nudge, without a single care.

Chorus

Oh, Lincoln, sweet boy, for ten bright, shining years
You filled our home with laughter, chasing away all fears
A golden heart of sunshine, a spirit pure and true
We'll always keep a space inside our hearts for you.

Verse 2

As evening gently fell, the day would draw to close
You'd find your way beside me, wherever I had chose
Just wanting to be near, a comfort soft and deep
While quiet moments turned, to promises we'd keep
Your head against my hand, a gentle, knowing sigh
Content with just my touch, as minutes drifted by Those quiet, tender times, a peace we loved to share
A loyal, loving soul, beyond compare.

Chorus

Oh, Lincoln, sweet boy, for ten bright, shining years
You filled our home with laughter, chasing away all fears

Lincoln's Golden Welcome (continued)

A golden heart of sunshine, a spirit pure and true
We'll always keep a space inside our hearts for you.

Bridge

Through every passing season, our bond will never cease
Your memory a comfort, bringing joy and peace
And as I whispered softly, "I'll love you forever, dear"
That promise echoes still, so crystal kind and clear.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar, glockenspiel

Final Chorus

Oh, Lincoln, sweet boy, for ten bright, shining years
You filled our home with laughter, chasing away all fears
A golden heart of sunshine, a spirit pure and true
We'll always keep a space inside our hearts for you.

Outro

Now you're free and joyful, beneath the endless skies
Barking at the birds, where happy spirits rise
Running through the fields, with not a single care
A golden spirit soaring, forever in the air.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade, soft piano

Forever in our hearts
