Sparky's Morning Warmth

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

In anxious moments, you were my calm embrace,
A fluffy poodle, filling every space.
I'd hold you close, my worries would all fade,
A silent promise that we always made.
Each morning light, a hand reached out to find,
Your gentle warmth, peace for my searching mind.
You slept beside me, a comfort ever true,
My dearest Sparky, always there for you.

Chorus

Oh, Sparky, my sweet friend of thirteen years,
You chased away my every doubt and fear.
Your love a beacon, shining ever bright,
My guiding star, my calm in dark of night.

Verse 2

Just one soft bark, your call for my embrace,
A tiny plea, in your sweet, loving face.
Your little paws would scratch upon my arm,
A gentle nudge, keeping me safe from harm.
You'd jump upon my lap, a trusting, soft design,
Your head upon my chest, a love-filled, tender sign.
At 5 AM, our cuddles, soft and low,
A special moment, watching sunrise glow.

Chorus

Oh, Sparky, my sweet friend of thirteen years,
You chased away my every doubt and fear.

Your love a beacon, shining ever bright,
My guiding star, my calm in dark of night.

Bridge

Though tears may fall, my heart holds you so tight,
I will forever love you, with all my might.
I'll never forget you, my precious, little baby,
Your memory a comfort, through what will be.

Instrumental - cello solo, Rhodes piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Sparky, my sweet friend of thirteen years,
You chased away my every doubt and fear.
Your love a beacon, shining ever bright,
My guiding star, my calm in dark of night.

Outro - Rhodes piano fade, soft strings

Now running free, without a single pain,
Across green fields, and through the gentle rain.
My little Sparky, peace is yours to keep,
While in my heart, your love will softly sleep.

Forever in our hearts
