George, My First Friend

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

When our mothers brought us near,
You watched me with an gentle stare.
I was tiny, just a little sprite,
You always held me safe and tight.
Remember when you chased a foe,
At the dog park, long ago?
Bullying me, you wouldn't stand,
My protector, close at hand.

Chorus

Oh, George, my first friend, my heart's true beat,
For almost nine years, our lives complete.
Your loyalty a guiding star,
No matter how far you are.

Verse 2

Loved your backyard, chasing round the tree,
Playing zoomies, just you and me.
Tug of war and wrestling in the room,
Always banishing any shade of gloom.
Mimi's hotdogs, a special, tasty treat,
Then waiting by the window, barking to greet.
Car rides to Bo's, hills we would roam,
With matching hoodies, bringing joy to our home.

Chorus

Oh, George, my first friend, my heart's true beat,
For almost nine years, our lives complete.

George, My First Friend (continued)

Your loyalty a guiding star,
No matter how far you are.

Verse 3

A gentle giant, with a loving soul,
With Laurie, through the neighborhood you'd stroll.
My mom, Jodi's toys, you held so dear,
Especially that tire, year after year.
Your beautiful smile, a warming grace,
Reflected the love in every space.
You knew you were cherished, day and night,
Filling our lives with pure delight.

Chorus

Oh, George, my first friend, my heart's true beat,
For almost nine years, our lives complete.
Your loyalty a guiding star,
No matter how far you are.

Bridge

Don't you worry, George, enjoy your time,
I'll watch your mom, a love sublime.
It's a party up there, where spirits roam,
You'll always be my best friend, my first, my home.

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, George, my first friend, my heart's true beat,
For almost nine years, our lives complete.
Your loyalty a guiding star,
No matter how far you are.

I see you running, free and tall,
Eating everything, answering nature's call.
Playing with Kisses, a joyful sound,
With Marion, Ryan, Josephine, safe and sound.
