Marino and Shula's Endless Walk

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar

Verse 1

Marino and Shula, side by side
Through every season, with nothing to hide
Daily walks, rain, snow, or shine
Your paw prints mixed with mine

On the couch, so soft and deep
My loyal Huskies, while I'd sleep
You were always there, a steady friend
Our bond, I knew, would never end

Chorus

Marino, Shula, my dear old friends
Twelve and thirteen years, a love that never bends
You walked beside me, true and bold
A story of comfort, more precious than gold

Verse 2

The moment I'd walk through the door
You'd greet me there, and ask for more
I'd just whisper "well," soft and low
And off to adventure, we would go

Your bright Husky eyes, full of glee
A silent promise, just for me
With wagging tails and happy sighs
Beneath the vast and open skies

Chorus

Marino, Shula, my dear old friends
Twelve and thirteen years, a love that never bends
You walked beside me, true and bold
A story of comfort, more precious than gold

Marino and Shula's Endless Walk (continued)

Bridge

Thank you for being there, my loyal pair
You were the best part of my life's journey, beyond compare
Through every season, strong and true
My world was brighter, all thanks to you

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Marino, Shula, my dear old friends
Twelve and thirteen years, a love that never bends
You walked beside me, true and bold
A story of comfort, more precious than gold

Outro

Now I hope you're running free
By the clear water, wild and glee
With endless paths and joyful play
Waiting for me, at the end of the day

Outro - guitar fade
