
Ginger Anne's Knowing Nod

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The day you bounded into view,
A lively spirit, fresh and new.
A tiny blur, so quick and keen,
The fastest runner I had ever seen.
A Schipperke heart, a Pekinese grace,
You darted 'round with joyful pace.
No fence could hold your daring feet,
Your active energy, bittersweet.

Chorus

Oh, Ginger Anne, my dear old friend,
Seventeen years from start to end.
A love like yours, so pure and true,
A part of me will always miss you.

Verse 2

That special nod, a charming sway,
You'd greet me at the close of day.
Your little head would tilt just so,
A silent 'what's up,' soft and low.
You'd welcome strangers with a smile,
And stay to chat a little while.
A playful spirit, strong and bright,
Filling our world with happy light.

Chorus

Oh, Ginger Anne, my dear old friend,
Seventeen years from start to end.
A love like yours, so pure and true,
A part of me will always miss you.

Verse 3

Ginger Anne's Knowing Nod (continued)

No indoor bark, a silent vow,
But happy barks, you'd let them flow.
A gentle paw, a friendly shake,
New friends you'd always gladly make.
With Timmy, soft licks, warm and true,
And treats from Raven, just for you.
Small joys that lit your gentle way,
And brightened every single day.

Bridge

I love and miss you more than you know,
A gentle grief that still will grow.
Your memory keeps my heart alight,
Shining through every darkest night.

Instrumental - mandolin, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Ginger Anne, my dear old friend,
Seventeen years from start to end.
A love like yours, so pure and true,
A part of me will always miss you.

Outro

Now running free, without a care,
Greeting everyone beyond compare.
With happy barks and knowing nod,
A sweet 'what's up' sent up to God.

Outro - guitar fade
