
Heart's Gentle Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

At eight weeks old, a tiny pup so small,
My wife's lap became your sweet soft thrall.
Her baby, nestled, safe and fast asleep,
A silent promise that you'd always keep.
With caring eyes, a language of your own,
More than words, your deep affection shown.
You'd sit and stare, a silent gentle plea,
A loving spirit, wild and pure and free.

Chorus

Oh, Heart, our loyal friend, for eleven years,
You chased away the shadows and the tears.
A gentle soul, a loving, faithful guide,
Forever etched, deep down here inside.

Verse 2

At 3 AM, your paws upon the floor,
A soft nudge for pets, then out the door.
You watched your street, a guardian strong and true,
No other dog could ever pass by you.
On the recliner, basking in the sun,
Smelling the air, your peaceful day begun.
Your Fis and Fi Bola, treated like your own,
The happiest dog, we ever had known.

Chorus

Oh, Heart, our loyal friend, for eleven years,
You chased away the shadows and the tears.
A gentle soul, a loving, faithful guide,
Forever etched, deep down here inside.

Verse 3

Heart's Gentle Watch (continued)

You'd bring your Fi Bola, right to my hand,
A silent request, we both understood.
We'd play endless fetch, with joy in your stride,
Your favorite stuffed toys, brought back to my side.
From the couch you'd come, a soft toy in tow,
Inviting a game, a beautiful show.
Those playful sweet moments, I hold them so dear,
Your love and your laughter, I still seem to hear.

Bridge

You were the best boy ever, our love so deep and vast,
Now your pain is gone, your gentle peace will last.
See you soon, sweet boy, where joy will always bloom,
Our God's angel, brightening every room.

Instrumental - piano, soft strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Heart, our loyal friend, for eleven years,
You chased away the shadows and the tears.
A gentle soul, a loving, faithful guide,
Forever etched, deep down here inside.

Outro - guitar fade

Running in Heaven, free as a playful pup,
Doing zoomies now, no pain to ever stop.
Just pure delight, across the golden skies,
Until we meet again, in those loving eyes.

Forever in our hearts