
Sassiesue's Joyful Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

My little deaf baby, so small and so new,
A true mama's girl, it was always just you.
With terrier spirit, a playful bright spark,
Bringing sunshine and laughter, lighting up the dark.

Chorus

Oh, Sassiesue, my sweet Sassiesue,
Sixteen and a half years, my love for you grew.
Every moment a gift, a treasure to find,
Leaving paw prints of joy, forever entwined.

Verse 2

After a long day, when the work was all done,
You'd jump in our chair, beneath the setting sun.
Snuggled up close, a warm, fuzzy delight,
Making everything better, making dark days bright.

Chorus

Oh, Sassiesue, my sweet Sassiesue,
Sixteen and a half years, my love for you grew.
Every moment a gift, a treasure to find,
Leaving paw prints of joy, forever entwined.

Verse 3

A little head tilted, a questioning gaze,
You'd follow my footsteps through sun-dappled haze.
Your happy paw-patter, a rhythm so sweet,
Made every day brighter, made my life complete.

Chorus

Oh, Sassiesue, my sweet Sassiesue,

Sassiesue's Joyful Run (continued)

Sixteen and a half years, my love for you grew.
Every moment a gift, a treasure to find,
Leaving paw prints of joy, forever entwined.

Bridge

If I could have kept you forever, I would have it be,
My dearest baby, eternally with me.
My love will not fade, it will always stay true,
Forever and always, I will love you.

Instrumental - ukulele, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Sassiesue, my sweet Sassiesue,
Sixteen and a half years, my love for you grew.
Every moment a gift, a treasure to find,
Leaving paw prints of joy, forever entwined.

Outro

Now you're running so freely, with no limits in sight,
With brothers and sisters, in endless sunlight.
My Sassiesue, my sweet girl, forever you'll roam,
Always in my heart, forever at home.

Outro - ukulele fade
