
Sandy's Forever Smile

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, glockenspiel

Verse 1

The day you came, a tiny, happy whirl,
A fluffy mix, the sweetest little girl.
Remember rolling on my carpet floor,
As I got ready, you just asked for more.
My little shadow, playful and so bright,
Filling every morning with pure light.
A small dog with a spirit grand and free,
That's how my heart remembers you and me.

Chorus

Oh, Sandy, my sweet Sandy, you're a sunshine ray,
For three bright years, you chased the clouds away.
A love so pure, a joy that knows no end,
My dearest, loyal, four-legged best friend.

Verse 2

In quiet evenings, as the day grew late,
You'd find your spot, sealed by happy fate.
Upon the couch, beside me, soft and deep,
While I watched shows, you'd gently fall asleep.
A comforting weight, a presence warm and true,
My world was always better, thanks to you.
Just knowing you were near, a gentle sigh,
Made every moment under open sky.

Chorus

Oh, Sandy, my sweet Sandy, you're a sunshine ray,
For three bright years, you chased the clouds away.
A love so pure, a joy that knows no end,
My dearest, loyal, four-legged best friend.

Sandy's Forever Smile (continued)

Though silence fills the house where you once played,
The joyful memories will never fade.
My final whisper, soft upon the breeze,
"I will love you forever my Sandy Dandy," if you please.
A love that lasts beyond this earthly space,
Until we meet again, by heaven's grace.

Instrumental - ukulele, light percussion

Final Chorus

Oh, Sandy, my sweet Sandy, you're a sunshine ray,
For three bright years, you chased the clouds away.
A love so pure, a joy that knows no end,
My dearest, loyal, four-legged best friend!

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now getting hugs and kisses, free from pain,
With Norman, reunited once again.
Running through fields of light, forever free,
My Sandy, waiting patiently for me.

Forever in our hearts
