Verse 1

A loyal collie, keen and bright,
You filled my home with pure delight.
Your perfect hugs, a cherished art,
With head upon my beating heart.
Paws around my waist so tight,
You made each day feel just right.
Then snuggled in as darkness fell,
A nightly story you would tell.

Chorus

Oh Merlin, my dear, faithful friend,
A love like ours will never end.
Twelve years you walked right by my side,
My heart's true comfort, joy, and guide.

Verse 2

Each evening when I walked inside,
Your happy dance, you couldn't hide.
That joyful bark, your wagging tail,
Another hug, it would not fail.
Excitement for that warm embrace,
A loving smile upon your face.
My constant shadow, close to me,
A bond for all eternity.

Chorus

Oh Merlin, my dear, faithful friend,
A love like ours will never end.
Twelve years you walked right by my side,
My heart's true comfort, joy, and guide.

Verse 3

When morning's alarm began to chime,
You'd join the chorus, right on time.
A soulful howl, a tuneful plea,
Until we rose, awake and free.
We'd turn it off, with thanks sincere,
For ushering in the dawning clear.
Your daily rhythm, understood,
My faithful friend, so kind and good.

Bridge

Though silence now where joy once played,
The memories will never fade.
I whisper words across the air,
"I will always love you for ever, my Merly Merls, my Merly Merls."

Instrumental - strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh Merlin, my dear, faithful friend,
A love like ours will never end.
Twelve years you walked right by my side,
My heart's true comfort, joy, and guide.

Outro

Now chasing balls in endless flight,
Faster than any dog, so bright.
No trees to hit, just open sky,
Watching the tennis ball go by.
Oh Merlin, my Merly Merls, you're free,
Forever running, wild and free.

Outro - cello fade

Forever in our hearts
