
Miyagi's Happy Dance

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

A handsome little boy, so fluffy and so proud
You wouldn't go outside unless you led the crowd
With every pan that rattled, you'd race into the room
Your appetite voracious, dispelling any gloom
You'd sit and give your paw, a trick you knew so well
For a tasty little morsel, under your gentle spell

Chorus

Oh, Miyagi, my sweet boy, you filled my life with grace
Nearly eighteen cherished years, a smile upon your face
You taught me boundless joy, a love so pure and true
Forever in my heart, I will remember you

Verse 2

I loved our morning cuddles, and sleepy nights we'd share
Your soft and comforting snore, floating on the air
The moment I walked in, your happy dance would start
A toy held in your mouth, straight from your loving heart
Around the room in circles, you'd run with joyful glee
Happier to see me, than anyone could be

Chorus

Oh, Miyagi, my sweet boy, you filled my life with grace
Nearly eighteen cherished years, a smile upon your face
You taught me boundless joy, a love so pure and true
Forever in my heart, I will remember you

Verse 3

You made our house a warmer place, with every gentle sigh,
A loyal heart, a steadfast friend, as years went swiftly by.
Through every season, calm or storm, you brightened every day,

Miyagi's Happy Dance (continued)

And with your quiet, loving soul, you chased the blues away.

Bridge

You took me on a journey, the best one of my life
My best buddy and friend, through every struggle and strife
Those 3 a.m. dissertation nights, I never would have known
Without you by my side, I'd feel so all alone
I'll love you till the end of time, my dearest, precious boy
Until we meet again, my source of endless joy

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Miyagi, my sweet boy, you filled my life with grace
Nearly eighteen cherished years, a smile upon your face
You taught me boundless joy, a love so pure and true
Forever in my heart, I will remember you

Outro

Now on a puffy white cloud, in the warm and golden sun
You watch your doggy friends, as they happily play and run
Anticipating dinner, hamburger and sweet potato, too
With a little bit of broccoli, as you look down on all of us, smiling through

Outro - ukulele fade

Forever in our hearts
