
Gunner's Shadow

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

From the very first day, a loyal spirit you grew,
Always there beside me, in everything I'd do.
A comforting presence, never far away,
Right there at my side, from dawn 'til close of day.

Chorus

Oh, Gunner, my good boy, a loyalty so true,
Four and a half years, I walked the world with you.
Now silence fills the space where you would always be,
But your paw prints on my heart, stay clear for me to see.

Verse 2

When the day was done, and the stars began to gleam,
You'd come and snuggle close, a comforting, sweet dream.
Your heavy weight beside me, against my weary hip,
A silent, warm assurance, on life's every trip.

Chorus

Oh, Gunner, my good boy, a loyalty so true,
Four and a half years, I walked the world with you.
Now silence fills the space where you would always be,
But your paw prints on my heart, stay clear for me to see.

Verse 3

I remember how you'd follow, a shadow always near,
Dispelling every worry, and calming every fear.
And when I'd take a moment, you'd lean against my side,
My steadfast, quiet partner, a love that would abide.

Bridge

Every memory cherished, every moment held so dear,

Gunner's Shadow (continued)

Through laughter and through sorrow, you were always near.
I love you, buddy, yes, you are my best friend,
A bond like ours, I know, will never truly end.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Gunner, my good boy, a loyalty so true,
Four and a half years, I walked the world with you.
Now silence fills the space where you would always be,
But your paw prints on my heart, stay clear for me to see.

Outro

Now I see you running free, where endless green fields lie,
With happy barking friends beneath a summer sky.
Always full of joy, enjoying every grace,
A happy, peaceful spirit, in that perfect, joyful place.

Outro - guitar fade
