Verse 1

When the ambulance light was finally done
And my long 24-hour shift was run
You'd meet me at the door with a happy sound
The best welcome a tired soul had found.
Your little Boston face, a joyful sight
Growls and barks that filled the air with light
Like weeks had passed since we last met
A bond like ours, I could never forget.

Chorus

Oh, Beetle, my dear friend, so true
Sixteen years I spent with you
Every memory, a treasured part
Forever etched within my heart.

Verse 2

Evenings quiet, cozy and dim
Sharing dinner, watching movies with him
On the couch beside me, a contented sigh
As the world outside just drifted by.
A special comfort, gentle and deep
Your quiet presence, secrets to keep
Those simple moments, soft and warm
Sheltered from every passing storm.

Chorus

Oh, Beetle, my dear friend, so true
Sixteen years I spent with you
Every memory, a treasured part
Forever etched within my heart.

Verse 3

A clever boy, with so much might
Your personality, a shining light
You'd toss your bowl, a knowing sign
To say that supper time was thine.
Then want a taste of what I ate
Spaghetti, shrimp, you couldn't wait
A tug-o-war, with joyful bark
You truly left your special mark.

Bridge

Now I whisper words into the air
A promise that I truly swear
"You're a good boy, Beetle, my sweet
And I will see you again, when our paths meet."

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Beetle, my dear friend, so true (so true)
Sixteen years I spent with you (with you)
Every memory, a treasured part (a treasured part)
Forever etched within my heart.

Outro

Now you're running free, up and down, round and round
Joyful play where new adventures are found
Giving my mom those famous Beetle kisses, it's true
Waiting for me, in heaven with you.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
