Cody's Gentle Breeze

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

I remember when you'd greet me at the door
Tiny paws would dance and fly across the floor
You'd jump upon my legs with such a happy sound
The most excited dog, the best boy all around
Ready for a walk, your spirit wild and free
To explore the world with you right next to me
A little Papillon, with ears like feathered wings
Bringing joy to me in all your happy things

Chorus

Oh, Cody, my sweet friend, for nine long years we shared
A bond so pure, beyond compare, a love that always cared
Your memory will linger, a warm and tender glow
My beautiful, brave Cody, how I miss you so

Verse 2

As the golden sun would start to gently fade
In your warm embrace, outside, a memory made
Cuddled close beside me, beneath the evening sky
Watching twilight gather, as the hours drifted by Nose in blankets, with that silly, special face
You filled my life with comfort, joy, and grace
A quiet understanding, without a single word
The sweetest little whispers that my heart had ever heard

Chorus

Oh, Cody, my sweet friend, for nine long years we shared
A bond so pure, beyond compare, a love that always cared
Your memory will linger, a warm and tender glow
My beautiful, brave Cody, how I miss you so

I picture you now, soaring light and free
A painted butterfly, for all the world to see
No heavy steps, just whispers on the breeze
Dancing through the fields, amongst the ancient trees
You learned how to be a dog, with joyful, boundless grace
A happy spirit shining, in that sunlit, peaceful place
With new friends by your side, your laughter ringing clear
You're safe and loved forever, banishing all my fear

Bridge

You were the one, my love, who truly rescued me
Forever in my heart, you'll always, always be
Go chase some squirrels, my sweet, dear friend
The cutest dog in the world, until the end

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Cody, my sweet friend, for nine long years we shared
A bond so pure, beyond compare, a love that always cared
Your memory will linger, a warm and tender glow
My beautiful, brave Cody, how I miss you so

Outro

Now you're running free in the wind, with no pain to hold you down
Flying high like a butterfly, above this earthly town
Playing in the sunshine, with new friends by your side
My sweet Cody, happy, graceful, and full of pride

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
