Muffin's Welcome Home

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

Little tabby cat, with curious eyes so bright,
You'd greet each stranger with pure delight.
Our home's ambassador, bold and so grand,
You'd welcome new friends, paw in hand.

Chorus

Oh, Muffin, my sweet, for three precious years,
You chased away all my worries and fears.
Your gentle purr, a comforting sound,
The best little cat that I ever found.

Verse 2

The sound of my truck, a familiar hum,
You'd be at the door before I could come.
A delicate dance, as I'd turn the key slow,
Careful not to bop your sweet little nose.

Chorus

Oh, Muffin, my sweet, for three precious years,
You chased away all my worries and fears.
Your gentle purr, a comforting sound,
The best little cat that I ever found.

Verse 3

You'd find your warm spot, a patch of sun so bright,
And nap the day away, bathed in golden light.
A quiet companion, always close by,
A gentle reminder, beneath a loving sky.

Bridge

I'll love you forever, my human I'll be,

Run happy and free, for all eyes to see.
Chase sunbeams and squirrels, by rivers so bright,
Forever in my heart, my guiding light.

Instrumental - banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Muffin, my sweet, for three precious years,
You chased away all my worries and fears.
Your gentle purr, a comforting sound,
The best little cat that I ever found.

Outro

Now at heaven's gate, a gentle friend so true,
Greeting new souls, just like you used to do.
In a warm sunny spot, where soft breezes play,
Resting peacefully, until that sweet day.

Outro - guitar fade
