Burt, My Sweet Burt

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

From the moment you came, a small black fluff of joy,
My heart knew a friendship time could not destroy.
A Pomeranian spirit, brave and ever true,
The one soul I trusted, my secret keeper, you.
I could be myself completely, no need to pretend,
My truest companion, my unwavering friend.
With every gentle whisper, every softest sigh,
You understood my heart, beneath the open sky.

Chorus

Oh, Burt, my sweet Burt, with eyes so bright and deep,
Eight years and ten months of memories we keep.
You showed me pure devotion, a love so kind and free,
Forever in my heart, you'll always be with me.

Verse 2

In the quiet of the night, when the world was fast asleep,
You'd find your way beside me, a promise to keep.
Snuggled close and safe, a comforting, warm embrace,
Bringing peace and quiet to this sacred space.
Then by day, between my legs, you'd settle down so low,
Watching all the world around us, soft and slow.
A silent understanding, a gentle, knowing gaze,
Filling up my moments in so many happy ways.

Chorus

Oh, Burt, my sweet Burt, with eyes so bright and deep,
Eight years and ten months of memories we keep.
You showed me pure devotion, a love so kind and free,
Forever in my heart, you'll always be with me.

Bridge

Burt, My Sweet Burt (continued)

Go chase the squirrels, Burt, run free in morning light,
Watch the sunrise painting hues, shining ever bright.
On the golden sandy beaches, a puppy once again,
No more pain will touch you, just joy without end.
I miss you so so much, until we meet anew,
My heart holds onto love, forever bound to you.

Instrumental - ukulele solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Burt, my sweet Burt, with eyes so bright and deep,
Eight years and ten months of memories we keep.
You showed me pure devotion, a love so kind and free,
Forever in my heart, you'll always be with me.

Outro

I see your fluffy pillow, bathed in heaven's golden gleam,
Watching over all of us, a peaceful, waking dream.
My special guardian angel, forever watching near,
Carrying your sweet spirit, banishing all fear.

Outro - glockenspiel fade

Forever in our hearts
