Angus's Softened Paws

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

When you first came home, a tiny spark,
We heard your little paws trace in the dark.
Through every room, a gentle sound,
Your loving presence always found.
Tiny nails upon the floor,
We knew you'd be with us, and so much more.
A Cairn Terrier, brave and true,
Our lives forever shaped by you.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Angus, our little star,
Fourteen beautiful years, near and far.
In every memory, clear and bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Verse 2

As evening fell and day grew late,
We'd share a quiet, peaceful state.
Just sitting close, a tender pact,
Until you were ready, a loving act.
To go night night, safe and sound,
The sweetest moments we had found.
Your head upon my lap, so still,
You always knew just how to fill.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Angus, our little star,
Fourteen beautiful years, near and far.
In every memory, clear and bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Verse 3

Angus's Softened Paws (continued)

Through sunlit rooms, a shadow played,
Each passing hour, a memory made.
Your watchful eyes, so keen and bright,
Bringing comfort, day and night.
A gentle nudge, a hopeful gaze,
You brightened all our passing days.
The quiet strength that you possessed,
Put every weary soul at rest.

Bridge

Though silence now where you once lay,
Your spirit dances, come what may.
"Mamma Love and kisses, sweet boy," I sigh,
My precious Angus, beneath the sky.

Instrumental - strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, sweet Angus, our little star,
Fourteen beautiful years, near and far.
In every memory, clear and bright,
You filled our world with pure delight.

Outro

Now you're running free, light as air,
Chasing every ball, without a care.
Playing with your toys, no pain to bear,
Sweet Angus, peace is waiting there.

Outro - piano fade
