Cassie's Heaven Herd

A Tribute Song

Acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

We were looking at homes, a new life to embrace,
Brought you with us, to see your happy face.
You ran in the yard, a blue heeler's delight,
Flipping down, rubbing scent, making everything right.
We knew that was it, the perfect place to be,
Then to drive-in movies, just momma and daddy and thee.
Your date night with us, a memory so clear,
No other dog could bring us so much cheer.

Chorus

Oh, Cassie, our sweet Cass-a-roo,
Fifteen wonderful years, we had with you.
Every moment a blessing, every day so bright,
You filled our world with laughter and pure light.

Verse 2

When the night came calling, soft and deep,
You'd snuggle between us, secrets to keep.
Couldn't sleep without touching, momma and dad close by,
A warm, furry shadow, beneath the night sky.
Your quiet presence, a comforting grace,
Always finding your loving, special place.
So much a part of us, heart and soul entwined,
The sweetest dog we'd ever hoped to find.

Chorus

Oh, Cassie, our sweet Cass-a-roo,
Fifteen wonderful years, we had with you.
Every moment a blessing, every day so bright,
You filled our world with laughter and pure light.

Verse 3

Through sun-drenched mornings, and afternoons so grand,
You were always beside us, a loyal friend at hand.
With a watchful eye, a twitching ear, you'd miss not a thing,
The joy and the laughter your sweet presence would bring.
A silent protector, so faithful and true,
Our world felt complete, just knowing we had you.
In every adventure, and paths we would roam,
You truly made our house feel like a home.

Chorus

Oh, Cassie, our sweet Cass-a-roo,
Fifteen wonderful years, we had with you.
Every moment a blessing, every day so bright,
You filled our world with laughter and pure light.

Bridge

Momma and daddy miss you, Cass-a-roo, it's true,
More than words can say, we're thinking of you.
You saved your daddy from darkness, a truth only we know,
Your love was a beacon, helping us grow.
A guardian angel, with fur and a bark,
Guiding us through shadows, lighting up the dark.

Fiddle solo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Cassie, our sweet Cass-a-roo,
Fifteen wonderful years, we had with you!
Every moment a blessing, every day so bright,
You filled our world with laughter and pure light!

Outro

Now you're a little momma, in heavens green fields you roam,
Checking on all the babies, making them feel at home.
Watching over chicks, and goats, and little sheep,
Especially the cows, while gentle slumber they keep.
Running free and happy, a hero so bold,
A story of love, forever to be told.

Outro - banjo, guitar fade
