Whispers in the Golden Light

A Tribute Song

Folk Lullaby
Lullaby
Piano, acoustic guitar, soft cello, ethereal synth pads
Soft, tender female vocals
Tempo: 60-70 BPM

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

Before the wedding bells, a Lab was by my side
Then came a golden friend, where happiness could hide
Two alpha girls found love, though battles they would wage
But every single one turned a beautiful new page
My Labrador gave birth, to eleven little lives
Though sorrow came too soon, her spirit still survives
Each golden lived long years, with spirits strong and true
And Zena leaves her paw prints, a love that shines anew

Chorus

Oh, Marshal, Jess, and Brie, sweet Sadie, Dolly, Pete
And twenty purring cats, our family complete
Through fourteen years and more, to twenty-one we've known
The endless love you gave, a seed that you have sown
Each paw print on my heart, a treasure I will keep
While golden memories flow, in slumber soft and deep

Verse 2

The cats all left their mark, unique in every way
One who never left my side, I think of her each day
Now a Russian Blue, from a shelter, small and free
Still part kitten, bright, a joy for all to see
And my amazing Golden, knew before I could tell
When an accident had struck, she cried, my husband fell
She reads my very mind, knows when I'm feeling low
The most amazing dog, a love that helps me grow

Chorus

Oh, Marshal, Jess, and Brie, sweet Sadie, Dolly, Pete
And twenty purring cats, our family complete
Through fourteen years and more, to twenty-one we've known
The endless love you gave, a seed that you have sown
Each paw print on my heart, a treasure I will keep
While golden memories flow, in slumber soft and deep

Verse 3

A comfort I have found, when human words can fail,
A silent understanding, across life's every trail.
I truly believe you're gifts, from God's own tender hand,
More than just companions, you help me understand.
Though future paws may walk, and new breeds come to stay,
Your spirits live within me, lighting up my way.
Each cherished soul remembered, a part of who I am,
My precious, chosen blessings, a loving, gentle lamb.

Bridge

I loved you all so much, dear souls, my cherished friends
You were not replaced, our happy home still extends
With more to share my heart, a family to embrace
I truly believe you're gifts, from God's amazing grace
And I am certain, sweet ones, I will see you all again
Across the Rainbow Bridge, where joy will have no end

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Marshal, Jess, and Brie, sweet Sadie, Dolly, Pete
And twenty purring cats, our family complete
Through fourteen years and more, to twenty-one we've known
The endless love you gave, a seed that you have sown
Each paw print on my heart, a treasure I will keep
While golden memories flow, in slumber soft and deep

Outro - piano fade

Now waiting at the Bridge, in fields of green they play
My precious chosen ones, until that perfect day
Sent from God above, a comfort pure and true
Sleeping peacefully, I'll dream of all of you.
