Mocha's Sunrise Glow

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

A sweet little cat with eyes of blue
My heart was captured, it's true
You'd purr on my chest, a gentle sound
The sweetest comfort I ever found
Curled on my lap, a fluffy dream
Your softest meow, a happy gleam
Sleeping beside me, safe and deep
A special promise we would keep

Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my love, a radiant light
You blessed my days, morning and night
Seventeen years, a precious bond
Now you've gone to a place beyond
But in my heart, your spirit gleams
The sweetest cat of all my dreams

Verse 2

We'd watch the sunrise, a golden hue
You'd sunbathe on the balcony, too
A warm little queen, so content and bright
Basking in the morning light
On my lap for TV, cozy and near
Sleeping beside me, banishing fear
Every moment, a quiet grace
Leaving joy in every space

Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my love, a radiant light
You blessed my days, morning and night
Seventeen years, a precious bond

Now you've gone to a place beyond
But in my heart, your spirit gleams
The sweetest cat of all my dreams

Verse 3

Your presence filled each passing day
In every quiet, gentle way
A steady purr, a knowing glance
A love that grew with every chance
My sweet companion, always there
Beyond compare, a love so rare
Through changing seasons, year by year
You wiped away each silent tear

Bridge

Enjoy your beautiful new home, my dear
A new life of freedom, no pain, no fear
Play all the time, beneath the sun
Wait for mommy, our journey's not done
I'll see you again, I truly believe
Until then, sweet memories I weave

Instrumental - ukulele, acoustic guitar, synth pads

Final Chorus

Oh, Mocha, my love, a radiant light
You blessed my days, morning and night
Seventeen years, a precious bond
Now you've gone to a place beyond
But in my heart, your spirit gleams
The sweetest cat of all my dreams

Outro

Now running free in pet's heaven above
No more pain, surrounded by love
Playing with TJ, Cantik, and Enzo, too
Enjoying the sun, a beautiful view
My sweet Mocha, rest in peace
