Stryker's Loving Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, so small and sweet,
You entered my life, making it complete.
A lover you were, never a stranger you'd meet,
With a heart so grand, every soul you would greet.

Chorus

Oh, Stryker, my best boy, sixteen years went by,
Underneath the same big, hopeful sky.
Your loving heart, it taught me how to fly,
A bond like ours will truly never die.

Verse 2

No matter the day, the burdens I'd bear,
You'd greet me at the door, beyond compare.
My biggest fan, a joy beyond care,
Your happy little nub, chasing away despair.

Chorus

Oh, Stryker, my best boy, sixteen years went by,
Underneath the same big, hopeful sky.
Your loving heart, it taught me how to fly,
A bond like ours will truly never die.

Bridge

You were the best boy, that truth I hold deep inside,
Unconditional love, with you as my guide.
You gave me purpose, nowhere to hide,
I miss you each day, with nothing to confide.

Instrumental - banjo, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, Stryker, my best boy, sixteen years went by,
Underneath the same big, hopeful sky.
Your loving heart, it taught me how to fly,
A bond like ours will truly never die.

Outro

Now you're in a lap, soft and serene,
A peaceful rest, the best you have seen.
My little lap dog, forever my king,
In quiet comfort, on gentle wings.

Outro - guitar fade
