Ollie's Forever Laugh

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, guitar

Verse 1

Twenty-six years, a feathered friend so bright,
Filling our home with pure delight.
Your laughter, your talking, a joy to hear,
Whispering "see you later," holding us dear.
"What are you doing?" you'd chirp with grace,
"O. L. L. I. E.," you'd spell with pace.
Then proudly declare, "Ollie is my name,"
Igniting our hearts with an endless flame.

Chorus

Oh, Ollie, dear Ollie, a lifetime of cheer,
Twenty-six beautiful, wonderful years.
Your spirit so vibrant, a light in our day,
You taught us to love in the most special way.

Verse 2

We'd gather together, the TV glowed soft and low,
Watching the scenes, feeling the flow.
Then your bright laughter would join in the fun,
Our little parrot, second to none.
You'd bob your head, with a mischievous gleam,
Living your best, most wonderful dream.
Every moment with you, a treasure so true,
A bond like no other, forever we knew.

Chorus

Oh, Ollie, dear Ollie, a lifetime of cheer,
Twenty-six beautiful, wonderful years.
Your spirit so vibrant, a light in our day,
You taught us to love in the most special way.

Ollie's Forever Laugh (continued)

Each morning's sunrise, a familiar sound,
Your cheerful Good Day Mate would always be found.
And tapping your nest, a rhythmic delight,
You'd call out "Mama," with all of your might.
When day was ending, and shadows grew deep,
Before settling down for your gentle night's sleep,
We'd cover your cage, then your sweet voice would chime,
With "Night night, I love you," for all of all time.

Bridge

Now as I whisper, gentle and low,
A final message, letting you know.
"You're Ollie, and I'm Mama," my heart understands,
Held in your tiny, sweet feathered hands.

Instrumental - ukulele, whistling

Final Chorus

Oh, Ollie, dear Ollie, a lifetime of cheer,
Twenty-six beautiful, wonderful years.
Your spirit so vibrant, a light in our day,
You taught us to love in the most special way.

Outro

Now soaring high, in skies so blue,
Flying free with Cosmo, Sprocket, and JoJo too.
No earthly bounds, just endless grace,
A peaceful journey to your special place.

Outro - guitar fade
