Ted, Our Faithful Shadow

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The day you came, a fluffy, watchful friend,
Right by Lisa's side, until the very end.
A brave bark at anything that stirred,
Most other dogs, a strange and unknown word.
A spoodle spirit, loyal and so true,
Our world felt safer, all because of you.
You gave your heart, in every single way,
Our faithful shadow, every single day.

Chorus

Oh, Ted, our buddy, thirteen years have flown,
The truest love we've ever known.
A paw print etched deep within our hearts,
Though we are now apart.

Verse 2

The magic words, just two, would make you leap,
"Let's go for a walk," secrets you couldn't keep.
Your tail would wag, a joyful, happy sound,
As we explored the world, on hallowed ground.
You'd sniff each corner, every single tree,
A happy boy, wild and wonderfully free.
Your quirks and charms, a tender, loving art,
Forever cherished, deep within our heart.

Chorus

Oh, Ted, our buddy, thirteen years have flown,
The truest love we've ever known.
A paw print etched deep within our hearts,
Though we are now apart.

Bridge

Ted, Our Faithful Shadow (continued)

Now the path ahead is less clear and bright,
We whisper to the stars, "Find your way home, buddy," through the night.
A silent plea, a loving, hopeful call,
You gave us everything, you gave us all.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Ted, our buddy, thirteen years have flown,
The truest love we've ever known.
A paw print etched deep within our hearts,
Though we are now apart.

Outro

We imagine you now, looking for Lisa's face,
Running through green fields, finding your peaceful place.
Waiting patiently, until that distant day,
Chasing sunbeams, far away.

Outro - guitar fade
