Frannie's Gentle Joy

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

The first time that your sweet face I saw
A poodle's grace, a loving paw
Your gentle eyes, a watchful stare
A joy that filled the morning air
At night, your quiet, peaceful snores
Echoed through my silent doors
A happy greeting, every day
You chased the lonely thoughts away

Chorus

Oh, Frannie, precious, loyal friend
Seven years, right to the end
Your spirit dances, light and free
A celebration of you, for me

Verse 2

That morning when you snuggled near
Chasing away my every fear
You slept so soundly by my side
With gentle breathing, nowhere to hide
A quiet comfort, soft and deep
Secrets only you could keep
My little shadow, warm and true
My world was brighter, just with you

Chorus

Oh, Frannie, precious, loyal friend
Seven years, right to the end
Your spirit dances, light and free
A celebration of you, for me

When I walked, you'd be right there
A silent shadow, beyond compare
Your knowing gaze, a gentle plea
Always watching over me
In every room, you found your space
Bringing smiles to every face
A loyal heart, so pure and true
My life was richer, just with you

Bridge

I miss you so much, precious girl, it's true
I'd give anything in my life to have you back, with me and new
You were so loved by so many people here, a shining light
And you are so loved in heaven, my sweet, beautiful girl, so bright

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Frannie, precious, loyal friend
Seven years, right to the end
Your spirit dances, light and free
A celebration of you, for me

Outro

Now with your babies, playing free
And friends who went ahead, for all to see
You check on Mama, missing you each day
But in my heart, you'll always stay
Running soft on clouds above
Surrounded by eternal love

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
