Rosie's Delicate Whisper

A Tribute Song

Intro - gentle piano, synth pads

Verse 1

From birth mom Ginger, sweet and keen,
The gentlest soul we'd ever seen.
You'd follow close, a loving plea,
Asking for affection, just for me.
Though brother Oliver might tease and play,
A gentle smack would send him on his way.
Close to your sister Lucy, always near,
Dispelling every anxious fear.

Chorus

Oh, Rosie, dear dear Rosie, our sweet little cat,
For six precious years, our love stood so pat.
A delicate whisper, a soft, loving purr,
Your memory, precious, forever will stir.

Verse 2

By the back door, a quiet afternoon,
Watching George beneath the moon.
A simple joy, a peaceful gaze,
Lost in those contemplative days.
Your sensitive heart, so full of grace,
Left an empty, longing space.
Even with Hunter, a distant friend,
Your loving spirit had no end.

Chorus

Oh, Rosie, dear Rosie, our sweet little cat,
For six precious years, our love stood so pat.
A delicate whisper, a soft, loving purr,
Your memory, precious, forever will stir.

Verse 3

You'd follow us from room to room,
Dispelling every shadow's gloom.
Beneath the table, soft and deep,
A peaceful, loving nap you'd keep.
Our step-brother Gabe, from shadows deep,
Felt safer when you were near, asleep.
When Tyler's cars would race and zoom,
You'd gently move to give them room.

Bridge

No worries, baby Rosie, sleep in peace,
From earthly sickness, find sweet release.
We'll be together, one glorious day,
And in my bed in heaven, you'll stay.

Instrumental - harp, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Rosie, dear Rosie, our sweet little cat,
For six precious years, our love stood so pat.
A delicate whisper, a soft, loving purr,
Your memory, precious, forever will stir.

Outro

No more suffering, no more pain to bear,
With angel wings, you float in the air.
Playing with kitties, so free and so bright,
Resting in Jesus' arms, held in His light.

Outro - piano fade
